Paris, Washington DC, Dubai, 09.10.2016, 20:20 Time

USPA NEWS - Millennium Airport Hotel Dubai was named Middle East's Leading Airport Hotel by the World Travel Awards (WTA) 2016 for the fifth time which firmly positions it as one of the best rated hotels. Please find attached our press release for the same.

Millennium Airport Hotel Dubai was named Middle East's Leading Airport Hotel by the World Travel Awards (WTA) 2016 for the fifth time which firmly positions it as one of the best rated hotels. Being recognised by the "Oscars of the Travel Industry" this inspires us to continue to exceed guests' expectations and build a reputation by providing an exceptional service and well thought-of customer centric approach. The gala ceremony, during which Millennium Airport Hotel Dubai was awarded this honour, was attended by over 400 guests, experts and decision makers from the Travel and Tourism industry. Mr. Simon Moore, the General Manager of the Millennium Airport Hotel Dubai, said, "We are honoured and immensely proud of our achievement. This is a prestigious recognition of our relentless efforts and the dedicated hard work of all our team members." "Our industry is moving at a rapid pace and we are required to constantly upgrade our services. It is our endeavour to offer our customers world-class service in a comfortable atmosphere," Mr. Moore added. This year's winners will be nominated in the finals of the WTA being held in the Maldives later this year.
